Cookbook Rummage

Description

Every day is earth day here in the cookery. Iâ??m rummaging through a stack of used cookbooks I found at the library. Instead of chucking these dusty volumes into the dumpster, someone placed them on the â??Help Yourselfâ?• cart at a local library. Some are great, others not so great. But whatâ??s old can be new again. Marguerite Patten was preparing healthy meals in under 30 minutes back in 1968. Her â??Speedy coq au vin?â?• 20 minutes!
