One Smokinâ?? Cookery

Description

Well, life â??round My Cookery would be a little too predictable if I was full of finesse. I was baking breakfast muffins early this morning when my husband ducked in and said â??wake the kids.â?• I told him not to wake the kids and he reiterated that I was about to â??wake the kidsâ?• . . . with the SMOKE alarm. It seems as if Iâ??d let something drip over in the oven yesterday and it was generating a fabulous cloud of â??rise and shineâ?• smoke throughout the kitchen. Looks like oven cleaning duty on the horizon.
